

Please, do not pass any proposal that would lessen our protection under Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I have always hated telephone solicitations and I like going home knowing I will not have to listen to several calls every day. My personal life is personal and I want to keep it that way.